Homeschool Partnership Program

Program Description:

- The Homeschool Partnership Program is designed for students wishing to supplement homeschool coursework with The King's Academy on campus coursework.
- Students may take a minimum of two full credits of coursework not exceeding three full credits of on-campus coursework in this program.

Admission:

- Homeschool Partnership (HP) students complete the traditional application, testing, and registration process, regardless of the number of courses taken or subjects desired.
- HP students can choose to provide their academic records and standardized testing results; verifying their academic ability is on par with what is required to be successful within the entire TKA program.

Academics:

- HP students may take a minimum of two full credits of coursework not exceeding three full credits of coursework in consecutive class periods on campus.
- All courses offered at TKA are available to Homeschool Partnership (HP) students.
- Requests to take courses not normally associated with the student's appropriate grade level would be subject to administrative approval and may require documentation to verify the successful completion of pre-requisite coursework. Please refer to the TKA Course Catalog for details.
- HP students may participate in standardized testing at TKA (see calendar for dates).
- HP students may not receive/participate in any academic awards or honor societies.
  - HP students are not eligible for valedictorian or salutatorian or any academic honors.
  - HP students are not eligible to participate in the Principal's Luncheon.
  - HP students are not given academic or college counseling services.
  - HP students are not eligible for Program of Distinction diploma designations (business, engineering, conservatory, etc.) as Homeschool Partnership students do not receive a TKA diploma but a certificate of completion.

Tuition and Fees:

- Parents should contact the Business Office for a list of fees.
- Additional fees may apply to specialized courses including, but not limited to, AP courses, Fine Arts course offerings and Learning Strategies.
- HP students participating in certain after school activities will also have additional fees, which includes fine arts and athletics.

Extracurricular:

- HP students may participate in extra-curricular activities, including athletics, fine arts' productions, school musicals, etc.
- HP students must take at least two full credits of coursework annually, one of which must be an academic core class, to be eligible to participate in extra-curricular activities

Non-Traditional Learning Policies

- In order to obtain and maintain athletic eligibility compliance, Homeschool Partnership students must properly fill out and meet all requirements of the EL7 and may not attend another institution for their remaining coursework (exception: FLVS)
  - All FHSAA paperwork must be submitted to the Athletic Department and receive approval by the FHSAA before participating.
  - Athletic eligibility requires that no more than 50% of a student's total coursework may be taken through The King's Academy.

Students are not eligible to improve course grades from classes taken more than two years prior. For instance, seniors may only remediate courses taken in senior and junior year; juniors may only remediate courses taken in junior and sophomore year, and so on.
- Students may not take a subject in the Remediation and Recovery Summer School platform unless they have previously taken it during their high school years.
- No more than 4 semesters may be remediated in one summer, regardless of the source
- Please refer to page 13 for additional policies regarding TKA Online coursework.

Miscellaneous:

- Courses taken for remediation from sources other than The King's Academy or TKA Online Summer School must be approved by the Administration. The original grade and the remediated grade will be calculated into the student's GPA.

TKA Online (Additional Policy Information)

Additional Policies:

- Courses taken from TKA Online are added to a student's transcript, and the grade received is calculated into the student's GPA. All courses attempted from TKA Online are noted on a student's transcript. Withdrawing from a TKA Online course before it is complete, results in a WP (Withdrew Passing) or a WF (Withdrew Failing) notation on the student's transcript. Students enrolled in a TKA Online course must complete the course requirements of that course within the dates set by Administration. Failure to complete the course within the set time frame will result in a WF or WP notation on the transcript.
- Course Withdrawal Information: Circumstances may necessitate a withdrawal from one or all of a student's online courses, however, students should consider the impact on their academic transcript before withdrawing. If a withdrawal happens within the first 28 days of the course start date, the course(s) will not be noted on the transcript. Refunds will apply according to the policy below.

Withdrawing after 28 calendar days, a student receives either a WP or WF on their transcript.

- Refund policy for online courses:

10 calendar days from the course start date: Refund of course tuition paid (per course) minus a $200 fee*.

11-28 calendar days from the course start date: Refund of course tuition paid (per course) minus a $300 fee*.

29-45 calendar days from the course start date: Refund of course tuition paid (per course) minus a $350 fee*.

46-59 calendar days from the course start date: Refund of course tuition paid (per course) minus a $400 fee*.

60+ calendar days from the course start date: No credits or refunds.

- Course Extension Policy: If a student needs to go beyond the original enrollment end date in order to successfully complete a course he/she may apply for an extension.

Students must have successfully completed 50 percent of the course work prior to requesting an extension and may request up to an additional 4 weeks for a one semester course or 8 weeks for a two- semester (full year) course.

Only one extension per course will be considered. Students must be working consistently in the course at the time of the extension request.

The course extension form should be filled out at least 2 weeks prior to the current end date.

Non-Traditional Learning Policies

If the student does not complete the course requirements by the end of the extension, he/she will receive a final grade for the course based both on the work completed as well as 0's for uncompleted work.

- Extension Fees:

If the request for a class extension is granted at least two weeks before the student's end date in the course and does not exceed the maximum time period in a course, a $100 fee is charged. If the request is approved, the dates in the course will automatically adjust to the new end date.

- Course Pause/Delay: A course pause/delay request is applicable when a student needs a stoppage of work in a course with plans to re-start the course at a later date. Students are only eligible for a course pause/delay request when they are successfully progressing in the course. Example situations where this option should be considered: Health issues; Family crisis.

Course Pause/Delay Request timing and financial implications:

1+ calendar days after the course start date: $100 fee (per course).

- Summer classes: Students attempting to take a full year course during the summer must register, pay and begin the course no later than May 1st. The end date is set one week before the first day of school. Students will not be granted requests for an extension.

Change of Program

Overview:

- Any student/parent requesting to change their TKA program, will be subject to a full entrance test. All testing and change of status approval is at the discretion of The King's Academy Administration.
- Any student requesting to transition to a full time traditional student at TKA must submit all online and/or homeschool coursework by August 1st. If coursework is not completed or submitted by this date, the students' transition approval will be rescinded.
- Students wishing to change status mid-semester must do so before mid-term in the first or third quarters or with Administrator approval. After mid-term, a change of status will not go into effect until the following semester.
- Seniors may not change status mid-year unless approved by an administrator.
